

PROCLAMATION
Adult Day Services Week
September 18-24, 2022

WHEREAS, New Jersey has numerous certified Adult Day Service programs throughout the state providing professional and compassionate services for adults aged 18 and over with a cognitive and/or physical impairment; and

WHEREAS, these programs enable adults with functional and/or cognitive impairments to receive needed care and services in a community setting, while often allowing their family caregivers the opportunity to work or receive respite from caregiving duties; and

WHEREAS, these programs provide a coordinated program of services including restorative and functional support, rehabilitation, skilled and preventative care, and individual and group activities for enriching the educational, therapeutic, and social experiences of participants; and

WHEREAS, these programs provide much needed assistance and counseling for family caregivers and other involved; and

WHEREAS, the United States Congress first officially recognized Adult Day Services Week in 1983, and the State of New Jersey has joined Congress in honoring the dedicated individuals and organizations who provide adult day services to people with cognitive and/or physical impairments while also supporting their caregivers; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Aging, certifies Adult Day Service programs across the state with support from the Division of Public Health, County Health Departments of Social Services, local department of health and the New Jersey Adult Day Services Association;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Richard M. Onderko, Mayor of the Borough of Manville, County of Somerset, State of New Jersey along with the Borough Council do hereby proclaim September 18-24, 2022 as "Adult Day Services Week" in the Borough of Manville and commend its observance to all residents.
